Area Sq announce the launch of contracting company Cube Interior Solutions

Area Sq, the office design, project management and fit-out specialists are announcing today the launch of a sister company, Cube Interior Solutions. The new division will undertake the Group's smaller-scale design and build projects, in addition to providing contracting services for the commercial and industrial sectors.

Trevor Hall, who joins from a competitor, will head up the company after a successful career in the fit-out industry.

Clive Lucking, MD of Area Sq says: 'Due to Area Sq continued growth, we identified a need to create a division within the Group, focussing primarily on handling contracting opportunities. Cube Interior Solutions is the perfect platform to deliver quality results and provide cost-effective solutions to new and existing clients'.

Trevor Hall enthuses: 'Cube Interior Solutions will complement services offered by architects, surveyors and project managers. Our main objective is to provide first-class services and gain repeat business from satisfied customers.'
